Competition Format

Example: U1600/1200 RR

Any player with a rating below 1600 may enter the event.

- Division 1 (D1): Top 2 players from each group advance to single-elimination for 4 prizes.
- Division 2 (D2): Top 2 players with rating below 1200 advance to a separate single-elimination for 4 prizes.
- Option: Players advancing to D1 with rating under 1200 may choose to play in either D1 or D2 (default is D1). Requests must be made when submitting scores. If such a player elects to play in D2, his vacant slot in the D1 single-elimination bracket may be filled by the fourth-ranked player in his group.

This format applies to all events with ratings specified below.

This is a great opportunity to compete against much higher-rated players and still advance after losing to them. On the other hand, higher-rated players have a greater chance to win larger prizes while inspiring lower-rated players and helping to grow the sport.

- For doubles events, entry fee is per player while prizes are per team.
- Free lunch
- No entrance fee, just tell the receptionist you come for TT Tournament
- All prizes for each event are guaranteed – even if turnout is low.
- Players without a rating are not allowed to advance without permissions from a director.
- Normally, a group has 6 to 7 players. If a group has 8 or more players, each player is required to play a maximum of only 6 matches in the round robin, as playing 7 matches would be too demanding for some players. However, please be courteous – if a player asks you to play the remaining match, please do so unless you are too tired. Only your top 6 matches are counted for ranking. If two players are tied for a position to advance to single elimination and have not played each other, they must play a match to determine the ranking.
